VOL. II.

SIERRA MADRE, LOS ANGELES COUNTY, CALIFORNIA, FRIDAY, JULY 10, 1908.

NO. 40.

CELEBRATION WAS THE REAL THING

Saturday's Commemoration was an Unqualified Success—Big Crowds Witness Sports and Have a Joyous Time.

If any town in this whole, wide country spent a better Fourth than did Sierra Madre, the fact has yet to be recorded. Never was there a better natured crowd than that which attended the events of the morning and afternoon. Never were care and all else that would interfere with the fun thrown more completely aside.

Sierra Madre went unanimously to the races in the morning and to the ball game in the afternoon. And the enjoyment of both was unanimous. It was just a big family affair in which everyone did his or her level best to make the rest have a good time. All enjoyed themselves in the effort and there was nothing to mar the pleasure of it all. Young and old entered into the spirit of the occasion and for the time being all were young, at least in spirit.

THE RACES

"Bob" Merrell was easily the star in the athletic events of the forenoon, held on Grand View avenue. His showing was rather remarkable and it is unfortunate that conditions were not such as to permit of satisfactory records being made. However his time of 10 4-5 seconds in the 100-yard dash is a fair sample. The course was on a slight incline, but this was more than offset by the fact that the record was made in ordinary clothes and without spiked track shoes.

Frank Leon, Adolphus Kershaw and Raymond Andrews also came in for a large share of the honors in the events for the boys over 14 years. In the junior events the Wrights were pretty much the whole show. Either Marshall, William or Gilbert Wright placed in every event but the bicycle race and in some events it was all-Wright.

Ten-year old Harold Lockridge won the applause of the crowd for his game race in the 50-yard dash. Taking first place in his heat, he was unintentionally crowded back in the final, after having an apparently good chance to take second place. The final was run over for second place, but Harold was too worn out to do as well as he had previously done and he was awarded third place in the race.

In the greased pole event there was plenty of fun for the spectators but it was found impossible to award the prizes because Billy Gottlieb got a pole so slippery that none of the boys could climb it. A special event will be held soon in which the prizes will be given out.

SPRINTS FOR LADIES

There was some difficulty in getting contestants to enter the ladies' races, but once entered there was nothing slow about the competition. All being young, they were classified as married and unmarried. In the race for single ladies Janet Stevenson and Mabel Olsen led the field and were followed closely by the Misses Humphries, Staples and Rice. Mrs. S. C. Collins had a clear lead among the married ladies, with Mrs. J. H. Wright easily second. Mesdames Jones, Keys Wright and Madden were among the also-rans.

The long program of events went off without a hitch and much credit is due Mr. Gottlieb for careful arrangements which made this possible. Everything possible was done to provide for the comfort of spectators. The Pasadena band gave most satisfactory service. Their music was the finishing touch which made the celebration, morning and afternoon complete. The youthful lemonade venders did a land office business and everybody went home to lunch happy.

Following is a list of the winners of the various events, first, second and third being given in order:

PROGRESS OF STREET WORK

Oiling Has Been Begun on Upper End of Baldwin Avenue.

Oiling operations have been commenced on the upper end of Baldwin and the rest of the avenue is being brought to grade as rapidly as possible. Mountain Trail has received the top dressing of gravel and many have been the expressions of approval over the appearance of the street. If you have been inclined to doubt the value of the street improvements in helping the appearance of the city in general and the abutting property in particular, just go over and take a look at this avenue.

The trolley poles along Kersting Court have been reset and are now on the west side of the street. This leaves the way clear for the grading and oiling the street in front of the bank building which will be done with the rest of the street work.

At the urgent request of Mr. Kersting and the Board of Trade, the city fathers agreed to let the curb line of Central avenue from Auburn to Baldwin remain as established by a previous incumbent of the city engineer's office. The curb line further west was set out to protect the trees. But if it had been continued to Baldwin the street would have been much too narrow for the business section, besides necessitating the re-laying of about 100 yards of curb.

VOTE FOR THE BONDS

Good Roads in Los Angeles County Will Mean Much to Sierra Madre.

Officials have been named for the good roads bond election July 30 and the following will officiate at the polls in this city:

N. H. Hosmer, judge.

I. N. Ward, ballot clerk.

F. C. Lehmer, clerk.

M. W. Copps, inspector.

If there is any real opposition to the proposition to vote $3,500,000 bonds for good roads in this county it is working very silently. But that is no reason for any voter to remain at home and say there's no use in voting for the proposition will pass any way. That sort of apathetic indifference may easily defeat the proposition.

The amount asked for improving the 307 miles of roads looks like a mere bagatelle when the fact is considered that the taxable valuation of the county is about $400,000,000. None of the money will be expended within the city limits of Los Angeles and yet about 63 per cent of the cost will fall to that city to pay.

While the foothill boulevard will not pass through Sierra Madre as was hoped, the main line will be within striking distance and near enough to make access to this city over good roads much easier. It will be but a question of a short time till connection will be made by means of an improved highway with the county road on White Oak avenue below the city. The voting of the bonds will be plainly for the good of this city.

IT SOUNDS GOOD

But the People Want Something More than Talk to Show for the Rumored Freight Depot.

Reports that sounded almost too good to be true have been in circulation regarding the freight depot proposition. It was told abroad that the Pacific Electric people were about to erect a freight depot at the corner of Baldwin and LaBelle avenues. Also, it was said that a ticket office was to be installed in the station at the corner of Central and Baldwin and that an agent was to be put in charge of the company's business in this city.

While the reports were not wholly authoritative there seems to be some ground for hope that these things will be brought to pass soon. Messrs. Andrews and Keys, representing the Board of Trade, have been in communication with the Pacific Electric authorities and have been assured that the company intends to put these plans into effect. But after the manner of their kind these officials refuse to name the time when relief from present conditions may be expected.

The railway people need expect no rest till the people of Sierra Madre hear a noise like a freight depot. They admit the justice of the claims of Sierra Madre and also that the amount of business transacted here would justify the expense on the part of the company.

In the absence of more substantial improvements on the part of the company the new dress of paint on the passenger station has attracted favorable attention. The building now looks a little less sombre and weather beaten. The track gang has also been laying a new siding east of Baldwin for the use of the Blinn Lumber company. This will relieve the congestion at the end of the line and make the handling of lumber much easier at the yard.

Trustees Hold Meeting.

The city dads met in regular session last evening, disposing of considerable routine business. The improvement of Grand View avenue from Sunnyside to a point 375 feet east of Cañon avenue was ordered and the ordinance is to be found elsewhere in this paper. A resolution of intention to improve the same avenue from Sunnyside to the west city limits was introduced, the owners of more than half of the frontage being in favor of doing the work as soon as possible.

City Attorney Haas still has the building and health ordinances in preparation and they will be brought up in the near future. Several street work problems were discussed. Manager White of the Edison company was present and an agreement was reached regarding the placing of the street lights which had been hanging fire for some time.

CELEBRATION WAS REAL THING

SINGLE MEN VS. BENEDICTS

It was "waltz me around again Willie, around, around, around" at the ball game in the afternoon, when the married men (Sons of Rest) played the single men (Anti-Workers). The official scorer wore out three pencils keeping track of the plays and even then was compelled to allow a few of the most romantic stunts to go unscored.

Of course interest was only added to the game by the fact that some of the players had not read the rules for several years. The rocks in the diamond only added a little to the uncertainty of things in general. It was the old "army" game, as exemplified when First Baseman Gottlieb fielded Madden's hit in the third canto, hid the ball in his mitt and gleefully put Madden out when the latter stepped off the cushion. Billy also gave an exhibition of characteristic and commendable charity in the seventh session when he threw the ball away off toward Arcadia and thus presented the benedicts with two scores to add to their small collection.

John DePencier was the slab artist for the "Anti-Workers" and it can be truthfully said that he held the enemy "safe" at all stages of the game. Attorney Madden served them up gamely for the "Sons of Rest" till the bombardment got too fierce in the fourth round, when Sparks went in and called a temporary halt in the slaughter. But the lull was only temporary for the "Anti-Workers" were after scalps and scored thirteen of their thirty-nine runs in the remaining innings.

M. W. Copps and E. N. Mead thought if they had only been given an opportunity to get in the game with the married men the result might have been different. But it is as difficult to agree on an "if" in baseball as it is to get C. J. Fox and H. G. Flint to agree on the relative merits of Maxwell and Mitchell runabouts.

J. W. Keys has come to the conclusion that "the umpire is a most unhappy man" because he must work all the time while the players have an occasional rest. If anyone thinks it is a snap let him try it.

It is unfortunate that Manager "Hen" Berry of the Angelenos was not at the game. He would have seen some material that would assure his team a permanent place at the head of the Pacific Coast league. To give credit to all would be impossible in the present space. Berry would also have seen a better natured crowd than ever gathered at Chutes Park. And that is something to brag about. The story of the game told in the following score gives a faint idea of the fun that was going:

Brief Items of Interest

Miss Elida Olsen spent Saturday and Sunday with friends at Long Beach.

Miss Hilda Humphries of Los Angeles spent the week-end with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. George Humphries.

Mr. C. H. Temple, of the U. S. Long Distance Telephone Co., of Los Angeles, is spending the week at Orchard camp.

W. E. Bechtelheimer is taking a much needed vacation at the beach this week. He is accompanied by Mrs. Bechtelheimer and son Robert.

On Sunday morning, next Dr. Campbell will resume his series of sermons on the future life at the Congregational church. The subject will be "Heaven as a Home."

Mr. and Mrs. R. H. Hudson have gone to Los Angeles and will soon go to San Diego where they will probably remain for some time. Their Auburn avenue residence is occupied by Mr. and Mrs. Linville and daughter, formerly of Moneta.

Messrs. Fox and Gottlieb went to Long Beach Wednesday and are enjoying an outing at the Virginia. Sunday Mr. Gottlieb will start for his home in New York. Here's hoping he returns to Sierra Madre some time before next July Fourth.

The Puente hills seemed to be having a celebration a la volcano last Saturday morning. One of the oil wells on the further side got afire and the big column of smoke seemed to arise from the summit of the hill, looking very much like an eruption.

Conductor Bealer had 160 people on the seven o'clock car into Los Angeles Sunday evening, and all were on the car at the same time. A load like that makes up for a good many light loads when the profits are figured up, but the light loads are not especially numerous.

Have you noticed the new crop of yucca blossoms this season? The first crop has almost disappeared but an entirely new crop is just coming to maturity, which explains why the big creamy white spikes up there on the mountains are holding forth so late in the summer.

W. E. Sturtevant says the past season has been one of the poorest in years for bees. Up there in the canyon where he lives, moves and has his bee-ing the honey season is about finished. There are no more flowers in bloom than the bees need for their own table use. There was but little really good honey weather this season and the honey crop amounted only to hundreds of pounds where it should have been tons.

The joys of childhood days were not far away for the merry crowd which was entertained by the Misses Evelyn and Marjorie Rice last Saturday evening. The gathering was arranged on the spur of the moment by way of concluding the Fourth of July festivities and the occasion was as joyous as it was impromptu. The fun-making included about everything from fudge to red fire and from serenades to a mock wedding. The event added the one touch necessary to make the day complete and each guest about 'steen years younger.

Miss Anita Carter spent the week-end with Miss Josie Relyea at Santa Monica.

Mr. Philip Blumer of Los Angeles spent Saturday and Sunday in Sierra Madre.

Mrs. R. P. Hearne and daughter Edith of Long Beach visited in Sierra Madre Monday and Tuesday.

Mrs. George Sinsabaugh has removed her household goods to Los Angeles and will reside there in the future.

Twycross has rented the J. A. Thompson cottage on Suffolk avenue to Mr. S. F. Tower and daughter of Los Angeles.

Mrs. O'Brien and Mrs. Grilley of Los Angeles spent the Fourth with Mr. and Mrs. E. B. Grilley on Central avenue.

Mr. Harry Staples returned to Oxnard Sunday. He was accompanied, by his sister, Miss Edna Staples, and by Miss Emma Driffell.

Mr. C. W. Page of Page & Co., has rented Mrs. Sinsabaugh's residence at the corner of Baldwin and Laurel and will take possession immediately.

Mr. M. Campbell has moved into the Howard residence at the corner of Baldwin and Grand View avenues. He will reside there until his new house at Highland and Auburn is ready for occupancy.

Last Sunday morning Rev. Father M. W. Barth began the Roman Catholic services which are to be held weekly at the cottage on Lima street between Central and Grandin. The attendance was most pleasing and indicated considerable interest in the movement.

Twenty strong and ready for the time of their lives, the boys of the "Order of Scouts" went to the mountains early Tuesday morning. They will camp in the West Fork until Friday. They were captained by Leigh Smith. Mr. and Mrs. A. S. Mead and Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Lord accompanied the party and will remain till next week.

Mr. and Mrs. R. A. Fowler entertained a house party last week at "Casa de Campo," the guests returning to their homes Monday. A most delightful week was spent by the guests who were Mr. and Mrs. W. G. Jobson, Mr. and Mrs. Lyman A. Craig, Dr. and Mrs. Irving Bancroft, Miss Florence Chase, Messrs. Chase and Craig, all of Los Angeles.

One of the most enjoyable Independence Day events in Sierra Madre circles was the gathering at the home of Miss Lambert during the afternoon and evening. The fine tennis court gave an opportunity for much enjoyment to devotees of the game. The picnic supper and evening festivities were thoroughly enjoyed by the company, which included a number of guests from out of the city. Those present were: Mrs. Haney and two children, of Duarte; Mrs. L. Stevenson, Dr. and Mrs. R. H. Mackerras, Misses Lottie Humphries, Hilda Humphries, Janet Stevenson, Daisy Hawks, Gladys Humphries, Campbell, Lambert, and Miss Beatrice Frazier of Pasadena; and Messrs. Partridge of Duarte, Day, Davenes, Line, Blumer, Ferguson and Lambert.

FRIDAY, JULY 10, 1908.

Seldom has the death of a statesman brought forth such eulogies from the press of all parties as did the passing of former President Cleveland. For unswerving honesty and courage to stand by his convictions he has had few equals. The most remarkable thing about Mr. Cleveland's career was the growth which he made after being sent to the white house at an age when most men have about stopped growing, mentally and morally. When first elected to the position Mr. Cleveland was not well equipped for the presidency by experience or education. But from the time he entered the white house until his death he never ceased to expand in ability, never losing poise in the face of the most bitter abuse, even from his own party, that has been the lot of any president since Andrew Johnson. Mr. Cleveland set a precedent which many regard as the ideal mode of life for ex-presidents and he will rank with the greatest of the presidents.

One of the most widely copied cartoons of the year appeared last week in the Chicago Tribune under the title "Eternal Darkness." Artist McCutcheon depicted a small boy in bed, with eyes bandaged, and the mother receiving the doctor's announcement that the lad would never see again, as a result of his celebration of the great and glorious Fourth. Fortunately Sierra Madre came through the day without an injury worth recording. But it is impossible to tell where the blow will fall next and nothing but personal experience will teach some people what is safe and what is not safe.

A near-business man thought he could get bargain rates on printing in Los Angeles. Recently he took a small job into the city for execution. It was executed, and no mistake. Presumably he got a bargain price. He got just what he paid for. The sample of the work which lies on the editor's desk just now contains only seven typographical errors. And yet the job was intended to attract the attention of people of culture and taste. There's printing and printing. The News Printery prefers to work for people who know the difference between the good and bad.

The coming presidential campaign will witness the use of large amounts of advertising space in the leading periodicals of the country. It is altogether likely that minor candidates will pursue the same method in getting their claims before the people in their respective localities. The power of printer's ink judiciously applied can hardly be overestimated. And when men who spend a large part of their time in devising best methods of gaining publicity turn to printer's ink, it sounds foolish for a little one-horse merchant to say it doesn't pay to advertise.

The editor helped some old college friends at Hollywood celebrate a wedding anniversary last Sunday. Needless to say, he had a good time regardless of the fact that their fifteen-months old baby made him feel rather like a back number. Incidentally he noticed that in spite of the oiled streets Hollywood's boasted trees and shrubbery were decorated with a thicker coat of dust than can be found anywhere in Sierra Madre save in the streets themselves.

With improved streets on which to hold the athletic events and better facilities for handling a large crowd, Sierra Madre should be able next year to hold a Fourth of July celebration that will attract outsiders, and prove a good ad for the town. If the people of Sierra Madre could show outsiders as good a time as they, themselves, enjoyed last Saturday the effort would be well worth while.

Mountain Musings.

(By Tomm-E. Rott.)

Teacher.—What was the largest laundry job ever pulled off in this vicinity?
Bright Pupil.—The Santa Anita Wash.

Nervous Lady (on the trail).—But if I fall over the side—are there not mountain lions?

Guide.—Yes'm, but don't let 'em worry you. The buzzards 'll pick yer bones clean before any lions ever get to you.

What would you say if you saw one of the trail burros going up with a grand piano strapped on its back?—Well, we said the same thing when we saw a 90-pound pony-built girl coming down with a 14-pound six shooter on her hip.

WANT A BALL GROUND

Sudden Demand for the National Game Calls for a New Field.

Saturday's ball game aroused enthusiasms that had lain dormant in the minds of some of our old time baseball fans for many a year. And some of the younger generation whose appetite for baseball had languished for lack of proper nourishment have suddenly developed an unquenchable desire to have more baseball in Sierra Madre. There seems to be plenty of material and the chief difficulty was in securing suitable grounds. Mr. A. D. Hawks came to the rescue with permission to use the land just east and south of the new office of the Home Telephone Co.

But little work will be required to put this ground into suitable shape. Consequently there will be a "party" tomorrow afternoon for the purpose of clearing the ground and laying out a diamond. If you are interested in baseball you are invited, nay urged, to be present with hoe, shovel, rake, wheelbarrow or any other suitable implement of warfare. The ceremonies need not be long nor tedious if a sufficient number will appear to assist. It is likely that another game will be arranged within a week or two if the grounds are ready.

Miss Norway Dead

Miss Elinor Norway, whose girlhood home was in Sierra Madre, passed away at Pasadena last Friday, the funeral being held Sunday. After leaving Sierra Madre Miss Norway went to Arizona where she graduated from the University of Arizona. She was a brilliant musician and well known in musical circles of Redondo and Pasadena, where she had lived for several years. Miss Norway possessed an unusually lovable character and had many warm friends in Sierra Madre, as everywhere else she had lived.

BRIEF ITEMS OF INTEREST

Little Gladys Caskey, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Greer Caskey, is suffering from an ailment in one of her eyes, but it is hoped nothing serious will result from the trouble.

Miss Mattie Jackson of Oregon, Mo., who spent the winter in Washington, visited Mrs. Irving Caskey this week while on the way to her home. She leaves for the east today.

I. S. Watson of Long Beach was in the city yesterday attending to business matters. Mr. Watson will bring his family to Sierra Madre for their summer vacation. Next week he will begin the erection of a bungalow on the lot he recently purchased on east Central avenue.

Wednesday night was spent by a merry party of Sierra Madre people in camp in the canyon back of the Villa. The spot is a beautiful one and afforded ample opportunity for enjoyment of camp life, for even a brief period. Those in the party were Mesdames Smith, Collins, Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Wright, Mr. and Mrs. Townsend, and Mr. Gottlieb.

Changes in the Southern California newspaper field have been numerous of late. Editor Wayman of the Newport News has sold his business to Mr. Walter A. Cornelius. Editor Huntington has changed the name of the South Pasadena to the South Pasadena Record, at the same time changing the form of the paper because of the installation of a new cylinder press. The Valley Independent at Glendale has been absorbed by the Glendale News, another proof of the foolishness of trying to run two newspapers in a town only large enough for one.

Agents for the various calendar manufacturers have already been soliciting business for next season. Seems somewhat like taking time by the forelock. But say, Mr. Business Man, before you decide to purchase anything of the kind from Buffalo, Kalamazoo or Los Angeles let the News man talk to you about it. He may not be able to supply your needs but it is more likely that he can give you just as satisfactory service as you can get elsewhere, and perhaps a little better. And the money would be kept at home. Think it over before you send the order out of town.

Insist on having Daugherty's relishes.

His brother Raymond was luckier and found two cards. He received a fine stick pin and watch chain worth $2.50 each. J. H. Parson got a fine pair of cuff buttons. David Graham received a nice watch chain worth $2.50. Reece Stewart found the "Jumbo" card and received a handsome ring worth $5.00. =A GOLD MINE= is a nice thing to own, but unfortunately there are not enough real gold mines to go round. If there were enough, then they would not be worth having. However, there are other ways to invest money just as good as in mines. It is our business to show you these "other ways."

Do you own any real estate? Just think of living on this beautiful earth and not being able to call a piece of it your own. Don't you know that the foundation of wealth is real estate? Isn't it about time that you were laying the foundation for independence?

Perhaps you are the possessor of property? If so, you know that more will be better. These statements are commonplace, but here is the point of the matter:

Sierra Madre is the Place to Buy NOW THE TIME

As we have said before, this city has the best future of any foothill town around Los Angeles. So long as the latter grows, so must we. People are pouring into Southern California by the thousands. The majority will settle within fifty miles of Los Angeles. They are people of some means (enough to start a home and business, anyway), and are looking for choice locations. WE HAVE THE LOCATION. In beauty of scenery, healthfulness, altitude, temperature, accessibility to Los Angeles, and class of citizens, this place is the choicest of the choice.

Property is lower than it has been for two years and lower than it ever will be again. It is going to rise rapidly and that soon.

You want to take advantage of this condition. There is the same opportunity for wise investment and good returns in Sierra Madre today as there was when the carline headed this way and everybody made money. TAKE ADVANTAGE OF IT.

Our argument then has the sermonic quality of three heads:

- 1—Sierra Madre is the place in which to buy—see above for proof.
- 2—Now is the time to buy—use your common sense for proof.
- 3—We are the people to buy from—ask our patrons and look over our list for proof.

N. V. Morrison had one of the most exciting runaways ever seen on this sunny slope Thursday afternoon. His four horse team started from Highland avenue and turned down Baldwin, drawing a heavy hayrack behind them. By the time they crossed Central avenue they were going like an auto and the wagon made a noise like a cyclone. Toward the lower edge of town the leaders turned one way and the wheel horses went the other way with the wagon, going some distance before stopping. The leaders were easily caught. As if by a miracle there was no spill and none of the horses was seriously injured, the most serious damage being a broken tug.
